LTFC buys site as new stadium plan advances

BY NICK SMITH

nicksmith@lutononsunday.co.uk

LUTON Town FC has announced the purchase of land near Junction 10a of the M1 bringing a new stadium a massive step closer to reality.

While it has not been confirmed that this is the new location for the new stadium, it is an important step forward for the club in what has been a long discussed proposal to find a new home for the Hatters.

Chief executive of the club, Gary Sweet, said in the Portsmouth programme notes: "I have the pleasure to inform you that our shareholders are in the throes of purchasing a 40 acre plot of land adjacent to the J10a spur at a land cost of £10m.

"More precisely, we have held this piece of land under a registered option since 2013 and made the first sizable payment this summer, resulting in the land now being in our control."

The land had been set aside as a possible location for the new stadium by Luton Borough Council, as opposed to Power Court and a site behind Venue 360 in Gipsy Lane.

It was set aside as part of the local plan, which states the Stockwood Park site 'addresses the need to remove a high traffic generating use with associated amenity and community safety issues, away from a dense and congested part of the town to a more sustainable location'.

However, despite the purchase it has not yet been confirmed as the location for the new Hatters ground.

Mr Sweet added: "It could sufficiently accommodate us, it could also serve as a valuable asset to help deliver a stadium elsewhere or nearby."

Fans at Kenilworth Road reacted positively.

Mark Chandler said: "I think it's a good thing, I have to travel from St Albans and hopefully it will improve parking. I say bring it on. As long as it's within the boundaries of this area, I'm up for it.

"As far as the club moving out of the town, it had to happen. It's happened with every club."

Lewis Benkin said: "It will be good, especially for people coming from outside of Luton. Convenience for the fans is paramount and parking will be so much easier.

"I hope we can bring the atmosphere with us. Kenilworth Road is a great old ground and I hope we can take that to a new stadium."

Tommy Ecot, from Hitchin, said: "I think it's about time. My dad's 50-odd and he never thought in his lifetime we'd see a new ground so it's good to see some progression."

But Richard Slade, season ticket holder for over 30 years, was not so keen: "I'm not a fan of it. It sets it up yet for another soulless out of town stadium. I travel from 70 miles away but even if it's easier out of the town I'm not a fan. Maybe it's the only choice we've got."

ALL SMILES: Holly's mother Katrina said the NHS blood donation service had been 'amazing'

Tumour survivor Holly is honoured

A SIX-YEAR-OLD girl, who survived an aggressive chest tumour and went through months of chemotherapy, has had a blood donation area named after her.

Holly May Chapman (pictured), from Dunstable, was only 22-months-old when she was diagnosed and she needed numerous blood and platelet transfusions during her treatment.

Investigation is launched after 2am shooting

A MAN was rushed to Luton and Dunstable Hospital with chest injuries following a shooting in Luton yesterday morning.

Paramedics treated the victim at scene in Wexham Close, Marsh Farm, at about 2am on Saturday but his injuries are not believed to be life-threatening.

Detective Inspector Andy Southam said officers are carrying out investigations at the scene and 'working hard to find the person responsible.' Anyone with information is urged to contact DI Southam on 101.

Police a 'no show' for community meeting

BY NICK SMITH
nick.smith@lutononsunday.co.uk

BEDFORDSHIRE Police has been slammed for not attending a justice campaign meeting on Wednesday evening, despite saying it wanted to 'work closer' with the community.

The meeting, which took place at Bury Park Community and Resource Centre, was organised by Luton 4 Justice and headed by representatives of the Leon Briggs, Faruk Ali, Mayah Shazad and Istiak Yusuf justice campaigns.

Instead of attending the meeting, Bedfordshire Police sent a letter updating those involved and explaining why it didn't attend.

Deputy chief constable Mike Colbourne said in the letter:

'Bedfordshire Police will continue to do all we can to support these families and will be happy to meet with family members and their representatives.'

Police and crime commissioner Olly Martins and representatives from the Independent Police Complaints Commission (IPCC) were also invited, but neither made an appearance.

The IPCC representatives also sent a letter in lieu of attending. Luton on Sunday contacted Mr Martins to comment on why he didn't attend by he chose not to respond.

Attij Malik, lawyer for Mr Ali and the families of Mr Yusuf and Mayah Shazad, read out the letter at the meeting and said: "I don't understand how they can speak about community engagement and then nobody shows up at a community meeting which they were invited to."

Liberty Louise, from Justice 4 Leon Briggs, said: "Given what we're discussing, I can't believe nobody from the police or IPCC came along, it's disgusting."

On his reasons for not attending, Mr Colbourne said: "As there are on-going IPCC investigations into the cases relating to Mr Briggs and Mr Yusuf, as well as an on-going misconduct investigation relating to Mr Ali, it is not appropriate at this time for Bedfordshire Police to comment further."

The results of an independent report into the safety of Dunstable Road, initiated by the legal team of Mayah Shazad's family, was also unveiled at the meeting, saying the road put pedestrians at 'constant risk.'

PCC names his top choice for chief constable

THE county's police and crime commissioner has named deputy chief constable Jon Boutcher as his preferred candidate to lead Bedfordshire Police.

PCC Olly Martins announced on Wednesday he considers Mr Boutcher the most successful candidate for chief constable following an intensive two-day assessment, but Mr Boutcher's appointment is dependent on a confirmation hearing on September 15.

This will be hosted by the Bedfordshire Police and Crime Panel, the committee of local councillors and lay members who scrutinise the work of the commissioner.

Mr Boutcher, who joined Bedfordshire police as deputy chief constable in June last year and has almost 31 years of experience, said: "It is a real privilege to be successful in the selection process for chief constable of this fabulous force."

"We have got lots of work to do in continuing to improve the service the force is providing to our communities and there are many challenges ahead."

MAIN MAN: Jon Boutcher has been named as preferred chief constable

MAN DIED FOLLOWING ASSAULT

A 24-YEAR-OLD from Lithuania has been named as the man who died following a serious assault in Dunstable.

Tomas Juska, 24, was badly injured following an altercation in Court Drive at 3.20am near the Gary Cooper pub last Sunday.

He was taken to the Luton and Dunstable Hospital in a critical condition but he died on Wednesday.

A 21-year-old man from Luton was arrested on Sunday on suspicion of causing grievous bodily harm and has since been released on bail.

MUSLIM STICKER MEN IN COURT

A GANG of men were in court this week accused of criminal damage after they allegedly posted hundreds of stickers on lamp-posts urging Muslims not to vote ahead of May's general election.

Ziaur Rahman, 37, Ibrahim Anderson, 38, Anees Farooq, 27, and Mohammed Alamgir, 36, all from Luton, appeared in Southwark Crown Court on Tuesday following the campaign in Newham, East London.

The stickers the men are accused of plastering across the area read: 'Warning: voting for man-made law is shirk associating with Allah-Islam the right to campaign' and were spotted in the run up to the election.

The four men will appear in court once again on November 10 for a plea and case management hearing.

SUSPENDED COUNCILLOR RESIGNS

ANOTHER senior councillor has resigned from his executive post following his suspension by the Labour party.

Cllr Mohammed Ashraf is said to have called council leader Hazel Simmons from his holiday in Pakistan and resigned.

He follows his colleague cllr Waheed Akbar who last week said he stepped down from the executive for 'personal reasons'.

The Labour party has declined to give a reason for cllr Ashraf's resignation or his suspension.

Luton on Sunday understands replacements for both councillors will be chosen at a meeting next month.

Animals line up for annual count

KEEPERS at Whipsnade Zoo in Dunstable took on a big challenge this Wednesday when they coaxed thousands of animals onto the scales for their yearly weigh-in.

From tiny beetles and rare butterflies, to cumbersome camels and mammoth elephants, all sorts of incredible creatures were greeted with tiny rulers and giant sets of scales, as keepers began recording the vital statistics of each of the zoo's almost 3,000 animals.

Two-hundred different species kept at Whipsnade, many of them on a global 'red list' of threatened species, need their details recorded to ensure that the health and wellbeing of each animal can be closely monitored by keepers throughout the year.

A range of techniques were used for the count, from putting a bald eagle's perch on top of a set of scales, to encouraging a baby sea lion onto the weighing-board with fishy treats.

AND THEY ALL WENT IN TWO BY TWO: Zookeepers had to round up all the animals for the annual count which records important information about the zoo's creatures

It's a hard knock life to make a living here

BY NICK SMITH

nick.smith@lutononsunday.co.uk

LUTON has been dubbed one of the worst places in the country to earn a crust.

According to a recent study conducted by Totally Money, the town has been ranked 45th out of 64 towns and cities across the United Kingdom on how easy it is to make a living.

The study was carried out to see where, on average, people have the most money left over each month after paying their bills.

Deputy leader at Luton Borough, Sian Timoney, said: "We have a number of well paid jobs on offer in Luton but I'd say around half go to people living outside the town.

"One of the council's main priorities is to create more highly paid, highly skilled jobs in the town, while also building up local people's abilities and skills so we can move people into these roles.

"An example of this is with the airport's expansion, which will see a number of jobs in aerospace created that we want to fill predominantly with people from Luton, increasing their wages."

Konni Deppe, who works closely with a number of High Town shops and other businesses to promote the area, blames business rates being set too high and football being low in High Town.

"This is making it hard for businesses which I've spoken to.

"People in the area, especially shop owners, just don't have a huge amount of expendable income."

Cllr Timoney also said that the increase in rents is playing a huge part in the problem.

She added: "Housing costs in Luton are ridiculous.

"We have people in the town who are on such high rents that they could be paying a mortgage off, but are unable to get one because of the wages they are on.

"People who work in London are being attracted because it's cheaper, but it just makes it really difficult for people from Luton to compete financially.

"It's daft really and needs to change."

Town bottom for primary results

BY NICK SMITH

nick.smith@lutononsunday.co.uk

MINISTER Nick Gibb is requesting an urgent meeting with education chiefs in Luton after schools failed to meet the required standard for key stage 2 SATS results.

The nationwide figure of children who achieved a level 4 in their SATs sits at 80 per cent, up from 78 per cent last year and 62 per cent in 2013.

Luton however is one of five areas to be singled out as the lowest performing authorities, scoring just 73 per cent.

Joining it is Bedford, Poole, Medway and Doncaster.

Schools Minister Nick Gibb has said he wants to see an improvement in the five areas with the lowest scores.

He said: "I will be writing to the director of children's services and directors of education of councils that are bottom of the league tables and asking that they meet me as a matter of urgency to explain how they intend to improve the teaching of reading and arithmetic in the primary schools under their control."

A spokeswoman for Luton Borough Council said: "Luton's performance presented by the Department for Education is based on provisional data and will not reflect our final position once the validated and checked data is released."

"Luton's headline results always improve once the results of discounted children are removed from individual school's figures."

"When the final data is released we anticipate that the performance measure currently being quoted will increase by three per cent, improving on last year's results and continuing the upward trend of the last four years."

If there is a three per cent increase, this would still leave Luton four points below the national average.

The spokeswoman added: "Luton is ambitious for all its children and young people and is determined to continue to build on the improvements that have already been achieved in all phases."

"There is also a relentless focus by schools and the council on improving the quality of teaching to raise standards."

"We are proud of the many positive indicators, not least the fact that the proportion of children attending good and outstanding secondary schools is among the highest in the country."

Lucky girl leads donor call

WHEN six-year-old Dunstable girl Holly May Chapman became unwell, and her father noticed she looked like she had a collapsed lung, it was the beginning of a tense and emotional journey for the family.

In March 2011 the youngster was rushed to the Luton and Dunstable Hospital and then to Addenbrooke's Hospital where doctors discovered a cancerous tumour in her chest wall. They told parents Katrina and John it was a 'very aggressive cancer' which did not respond well to treatment.

Katrina said: "During treatment you live in a bubble and you just concentrate on your daughter. She had a scan and luckily the tumour had started to shrink."

"She had a couple of operations and her breathing got so bad they said she would have to have a five-week course of radiotherapy every day. She was poorly throughout the whole treatment, but within eight months the cycle of chemotherapy finished and in December 2011 we were told that she was in remission."

Mum Katrina said Holly, pictured, was given 'an awful lot of blood transfusions' and platelet transfusions during treatment. Last week, she was chosen by the blood donation centre in St George's Square as the poster child for a new campaign aimed at inspiring more donors.

Katrina added: "We want to support the work they are doing."

"Children are being diagnosed all the time and it is about giving parents hope."

Airport bosses to fight noise rules

BY CARL MUNGAZI

carl.mungazi@lutononsunday.co.uk

LUTON Airport has submitted an application to 'simplify' noise limits it says will target quieter planes during its expansion.

Neil Thompson, operations director at the airport, said restrictions placed by Luton Borough Council in 2013 on its plans to double passenger numbers meant modern planes - which are quieter - had lower noise limits than older, noisier aircraft.

The condition places a limit 24/7 on noise levels generated by all aircraft.

Mr Thompson said: "What we want to do is to have one limit for the day time and one for the night time because with the current condition, if you are a quiet aircraft, you have a lower noise limit and if you are a noisier aircraft you have a higher limit. We want to target noisier aircraft and encourage the airlines to use quieter aircraft."

The expansion is expected to boost passenger capacity from 12 million to 18 million.

However, the plans have been met with opposition from a number of groups, including St Albans City and District Council. The authority said the new limits would result in 'significant noise disturbance' for residents.

It said: "We objected to the original planning application due to significant concerns relating to noise from the development and aircraft. The variation of the condition would, in the opinion of this council, increase noise over and beyond levels that were previously considered unacceptable. This would result in significant noise disturbance to the amenities of residents in the district."

Luton Council has yet to decide on the application.

Investigation into police cell death

THE family of a man who died in police custody in June have welcomed an investigation into his death hoping they will get justice for their son.

Istiaq Yusuf, 25, from Luton, was arrested by Bedfordshire Police officers at an address in Luton at 8.47am on June 13, and taken into custody.

He became unresponsive, died in his cell, and an investigation has since been launched by the Independent Police Complaints Commission.

A preliminary pre-inquest review was held at Amptill Coroner's Court on Thursday for an update on the investigation, ahead of the full three day jury inquest set to be held on December 15, 16 and 17 this year.

His mother, Syede, said after the review: "I hope that this investigation will bring justice for Istiaq and that because of this that no families will experience this happening to their son or family member."

New stops add to busway spending

BY CARL MUNGAZI

carl.mungazi@lutononsunday.co.uk

MORE money could be spent on the controversial Luton Dunstable busway project - which opened two years ago and could still yet go over its £89.2 million budget.

Luton Borough and Central Bedfordshire councils have to decide on how to fund part of a new round of works worth £1.2 million which includes building three new stops.

This new expenditure is on top of the construction costs for the scheme, compensation for residents who live along the route and its yearly maintenance cost of £200,000.

It has also emerged that a draft report of the accident that took place on the busway on August 1 has determined that 'driver error' was the cause of the incident which injured three people.

The latest revelations came from Luton Council's transport manager during a meeting on Wednesday.

He said it was 'difficult' for the authority to predict the scheme's final cost as a number of financial matters were still unresolved.

He said: "One of the issues is that we have got an amount of money that's been allocated in the budget under the Land Compensation Act, which is effectively the disturbance of the residents who live alongside the busway."

"We have received a number of claims but we have a bit of a problem because the person that was working on the claims left at the beginning of the year for personal reasons."

"But he has agreed to come back and complete that work so we will have a better idea in the next few months."

He said £800,000 of the money needed for new bus stops was coming from a regional fund but added that both councils had to find the remaining £400,000.

The outstanding financial issues have led Liberal Democrat councillor David Franks to call on the council to release all the financial data on the scheme once the matters are settled.

Luton council has spent the last two years locked in discussions with construction firm BAM Nuttall over the final construction bill.

Speaking after the meeting, Cllr Franks said: "Whether they supported the busway project or not, Luton taxpayers are entitled to know how much of their money has been spent on it and as soon as the land compensation claims and the construction costs have been sorted I will be expecting to see all the figures made public."

His comments have been echoed by community activist Doreen Steinberg who said the situation was a 'disgrace' and trade unionist Jim Thakordin who said the busway was 'under-performing'.

A Luton council spokeswoman said 'a lot of progress' had been made in the negotiations in recent months and that a final figure was expected by the end of the year.

However, she also said some of the information was subject to a 'confidential agreement'.

She added: "It should be noted that, under part 1 of the Land and Compensation Act, residents affected by the operation of the busway have up to six years to submit a claim, so the final costs will not be known until that time."

Private rented homes burgled more often

AREAS of Luton with a high percentage of privately rented houses are burgled more often than those without, new research has shown.

A report by the Police Foundation states that areas of Luton with fewer residents renting privately had 20 burglaries per 1,000 households while those living in places with more private rents had up to 50 per 1,000 households. It also said that between 2001 and 2011, the number of people renting privately doubled from 13 to 23 per cent of the town's 74,293 dwellings.

Its director, Rick Muir, called for landlords to be made subject to more regulation.

78 bed hostel to help relieve housing needs

BY CARL MUNGAZI

carl.mungazi@lutononsunday.co.uk

AN office block previously earmarked for student flats is being turned into a hostel to help meet the town's high housing demand.

Midland House, in King Street, will be run by YMCA Bedfordshire which is working with Luton Borough Council to reduce the authority's extensive waiting list.

In July 2013 permission was granted for the block to be turned into 60 student flats to serve the nearby University of Bedfordshire but that has now changed.

It will cater for single 16 to 65-year-olds in need of housing, who can prove they have local connections.

Nick Clements, housing manager at the YMCA, (pictured) said the scheme would tackle the problem of 'roughsleeping and sofa surfing' by people with nowhere to stay. He said: "My understanding is that the need for accommodation in Luton is quite high and that there is an extensive wait for housing.

"Our aim is to help the council reduce its waiting list."

No peace and quiet in Luton

LIVING next to Luton Airport, you think that you get used to the noise of jets taking off from 6am in the morning 'til midnight every day.

It's only when you go on holiday you can see how bad it is. I've just stayed in a caravan for a week at Hemsby, near Great Yarmouth. All I could hear from my bed was the gentle waves crashing on the beach and the birds singing in the morning.

Peace and quiet. You don't get that living in Luton.

I presume it's only going to get worse. Oh well, only 51 weeks until my next holiday.

Compromise for giant house

HAVING considered the case of Mr Shah's oversized 'bungalow' in Barton-le-Clay, I suggested a possible solution by mutual agreement (Your letters, August 16).

That would simultaneously penalise him for exceeding planning consent by letting his home for a year to a few homeless – but not penniless – people, compensate the council, which could receive rents totalling over a thousand pounds a week, and avoid the wasteful destruction of his home by granting retrospective consent for a house far exceeding in appearance many of the little boxes favoured by get-rich-quick devel-

L&D staff were 'outstanding'

I'VE just had the misfortune to have to spend a short time in hospital.

But I had the good fortune to spend it at the Luton and Dunstable

University Hospital.

Please pass on my sincere gratitude to all the staff with whom I had contact with during my stay for their outstanding performance.

All of them were clearly very busy yet nothing was too much trouble for them and every one of them had a ready smile on their faces all the time.

We are very lucky to have such a competent and well run facility on our doorstep.

opers. Consequently, I was disappointed (August 23), to find only three negative letters on this matter, two of them anonymous.

Not one made any comment on my suggestion or offered any alternative to demolition. I can only conclude, therefore, that their writers were motivated less by their wish for a positive outcome than by their overweening envy of someone apparently better off than themselves.

Safety of air shows paramount

IT will be very hard for air show organisers to put on an amazing, exciting show, if the planes can't do aerobatics.

That's what the public want. I've been to many air shows in my life. I don't want to pay £50 a ticket to see a black dot flying high in the sky.

But at the end of the day. It's got to be safe.

Snail mail does suit for some

ACCORDING to recent figures released by the Office for National Statistics, there are approximately five million people in the UK who have never used the internet.

The figures increase significantly for the most vulnerable groups within our society, such as the elderly.

Despite these figures, many UK businesses such as banks, utility providers and telecoms companies have put more and more emphasis on digital communication as part of their approach to customer services.

The Keep Me Posted campaign is dedicated to making sure that everyone has a choice in how they receive bills and statements from their providers, and aren't penalised for needing or wanting to manage their affairs by post. It's a basic consumer right.

Continental pickings for eager shoppers

RESIDENTS had a treat this week when a continental market selling a variety of goods set up shop in the town centre.

The market, in George Street, opened on Tuesday and ran until yesterday selling items such as Bratwurst sausages, Turkish Delight, Caribbean food, South American handmade gifts, handmade garden furniture and Egyptian textiles.

Councillor Sian Timoney said it gave residents a chance to 'wander around a good market to search for bargains and hidden gems'.

Warning after theft at Downs car park

BY CARL MUNGAZI

carl.mungazi@lutononsunday.co.uk

A LECTURER who had her wallet stolen from her car at a popular leisure site has warned other drivers to take care.

Karolina Cicharska, of Lewsey Farm, had her wallet taken when thieves smashed the window of her vehicle in a car park at Dunstable Downs. It happened last Sunday afternoon while she was out walking with her husband.

Karolina, aged 30, who is a health and social care lecturer at West Herts College, said: "We always go there but this has never happened to us before."

"We normally park in the big car park but this time we parked in the smaller one and we were away for about 30 minutes. As we were going back we saw that the window was smashed and they had stolen my wallet which had all my cards inside."

After the theft, Karolina said she spoke to a Bedfordshire Police officer who told her break-ins were 'very common' in the area.

She added: "Afterwards when we had a little wander we drove down going towards Dunstable."

"There was no car but in one of the other car parks there was smashed glass on the ground, so maybe that confirms what the police said."

A Bedfordshire Police spokeswoman said popular leisure sites such as the Downs were 'targets' for thieves.

Specialists best to teach sex ed

BY JENNA HUTBER
editor@lsnmedia.co.uk

SEX education lessons in schools should be taught by trained professionals rather than teachers to combat the issue of teen pregnancy, a leading local expert has said.

Alison Hadley, director of teenage pregnancy knowledge at the University of Bedfordshire, said Office of National Statistics (ONS) figures released on Tuesday, revealing teenage conception rates nationwide have almost halved in the last 17 years, show how 'long term prevention programmes take time to have their full impact'.

But the ONS data showed Luton's conception rate for girls aged 15-17 in spring 2014 was 30.1 per one thousand girls, compared to 23.2 nationwide.

Ms Hadley said: "Pregnancy prevention strategies are most effective when they build blocks of knowledge and confidence early on."

"It's so important for children to be taught by trained

THOUGHT LEADER: Alison Hadley has worked as a family planning nurse and health visitor and spent 25 years in strategic leadership professionals rather than a school teacher who feels embarrassed by it.

"A parliamentary report published in February recommended only trained professionals should be teaching sex education. It should be a statutory requirement."

She added: "Headlines about sex education in primary school are misleading, it's not about teaching five-year-olds how to have sex.

"Primary sex education is very basic - naming body parts, learning to tell 'good touching' from 'bad touching'. It focuses on protecting children from abuse."

Work football game ends in court fight

BY JULIA SUTTON
editor@lsnmedia.co.uk

A FIVE-a-side football match during the lunch break at a Dunstable firm left one player with a bleeding nose and the other a broken cheek bone.

Garry Duncan was angry when he was accidentally elbowed in the face by Guido Gasparri at Lantec in Lovett Way on the Woodside Industrial Estate.

He swore at Mr Gasparri, who is from Somalia, and headbutted him during a struggle. Other workers separated the men.

Mr Gasparri was taken to the Luton and Dunstable Hospital, where three metal plates were placed into a fractured left cheek bone, Luton Crown Court heard on Monday.

Gabrielle McAvoek, prosecuting, said Mr Gasparri missed a goal and put his head in his hands. When he moved his hands back his elbow hit Mr Duncan in the face, causing a nose bleed.

Duncan told the police that during the struggle Mr Gasparri had got him by the throat and he felt intimidated and tried to get him off. He said Mr Gasparri had threatened to kill him.

Duncan, of Jubilee Court, Dunstable, pleaded guilty to inflicting grievous bodily harm on August 5 last year.

His barrister Ross Talbott asked the judge for an indication of the maximum sentence he would receive if he pleaded guilty, which was said to be 16 months.

Sentence was adjourned until September 14 and he was granted bail.

Right up your street

Iconic car firm made its mark on the roads

THIS week Howard Chandler tells us how a big employer was remembered on the roads. VAUXHALL Motors played a big part in the growth of Luton in the 20th century providing employment for tens of thousands of people.

So what street names are linked to it? Vauxhall Road was built in the 1930s to connect Kimpton Road and Gipsy Lane but was closed to public traffic in the 1980s.

In 1983 the central section of the East Circular Road from Hitchin Road to Airport Way, passing by the side of the Vauxhall factory, was given the name Vauxhall Way.

In 1953 Wyvern Close, off Humberstone Road, was named after the Vauxhall Wyvern which was introduced in 1948.

Viscount Close, leading off Limbury Road, was named in the late 1960s after the luxury Vauxhall Viscount (1966-72).

In 1995 Cavalier Close, a small road off Runfold Avenue, was named after the popular Vauxhall Cavalier (1975-95).

I thought these were the only 'Vauxhall' roads until I read about four men who played a large part in the company's early success. More about them next week.

Cloudy2Clear Windows – Service With A Smile!

It's been a crazy few months for Cloudy2Clear Windows. The company which specialises in repairing windows which are steamed up, broken or damaged by replacing the panes – not the frames has grown rapidly as homeowners take advantage of their services.

Managing Director Tom Bliss feels that it's all about service. 'Our product is simple. If your double glazing is misted up we can replace the glass at a fraction of the cost of a new window, in any type of frame, and with a new 10 year guarantee. But it's not just about saving people money, although that obviously helps. Many tradespeople have struggled since last year and I honestly feel that during the good times a minority perhaps didn't focus on customer care as much as they should have done. We make sure we turn up when we say we will, do the job the customer requires and leave their house as clean as a whistle. I often get comments back from customers on how they really didn't expect that sort of service which, in a way, is very sad for the service industry as a whole.'

Cloudy2Clear service the Luton, Dunstable and Stevenage areas and Tom is finding that his approach is a major factor in his success.

'The truth is that it's not just the personal satisfaction that I get from doing a good job but also it makes good business sense. I get a huge amount of business from friends and family of people I've done work for, which just goes to show how much a little bit of effort is appreciated.'

THE sixth Luton's Best Awards are here.

The 2015 awards, organised by Love Luton, are a way to recognise unsung heroes in the town who selflessly go above and beyond expectations to make a difference in other people's lives and to the community as a whole.

A spokeswoman for Love Luton said: "Once again we will be honouring the outstanding achievements of many of Luton's individuals, groups and organisations.

"These people are often unsung heroes who willingly give up their time to help others and contribute to our community. The Luton's Best Awards is our way to thank these people for their outstanding efforts."

Nominations are open until Monday, October 26. Voting closes for the People's Choice Award on Thursday, November 26.

Learn about town's part in the Great War through its soldiers

WAR

YELLOW DEVILS WW1 EXHIBITION

Wardown Park Museum
Now until December 31

THE spotlight is on Luton's contribution to the war effort at the latest exhibition at Wardown Park museum.

History buffs and those with an interest in the local area can get lost in the different artefacts and materials from the 'Yellow Devils' on display.

The Bedfordshire Regiment, which was the 5th territorial battalion, fought at the Gallipoli peninsula in Turkey in 1915.

Most of the men came from Luton and the surrounding areas and on July 23-25 they went on a 60-mile farewell march through Bedfordshire, from St Albans to Luton via Dunstable and Bedford.

Although the entire battalion was not needed for the Gallipoli campaign, the recruits all went together because they did not want to be separated.

Nigel Lutt, a trustee and archivist at the Bedfordshire and Hertfordshire Regiment Museum Trust, said: "The battalion had a very distinctive military history. The point is that they were the local territorial battalion, so it was the nearest they had to a pals battalion - men who were recruited from the same area. Most of the areas with pal battalions lost many of their men in one go. Fortunately things were never that bad in Bedfordshire and Luton."

The exhibition at Wardown Park marks the centenary of the Yellow Devils. Their nickname came from a badge on their arm which shone in the sunlight.

Nigel said: "This exhibition is about reminding the town about the part that they played.

TRIP THROUGH TIME: The First World War exhibition at Wardown Park

"The 5th regiment was unusual in that they had trained together before the war and they were the only battalion of Bedfordshire to serve in Gallipoli while all the others went to the Western front.

"We have some photographs of the march through Bedfordshire before they went overseas. We have some personal mementos of soldiers who enlisted and we have the diary of a soldier from Dunstable who recorded his experiences.

"We have a band master's baton from a soldier from Luton and we also have some Turkish relics taken from the battlefield by some of the men from the battalion.

"I think people who visit the exhibition will probably get a clearer idea of the part the local battalion played in the Gallipoli campaign.

"The campaign as a whole was a failure. We have a bust of Winston Churchill on display and as First Lord of the Admiralty he carried the buck for much of the failure until he became a successful prime minister."

The event is free to attend. For more on the exhibition and other war projects at the museum visit lutonculture.com/wardown-park-museum/great-war-stories

Farewell show for company's award winner

THE BUTTERFLY CATCHER

The Hat Factory
Sunday, September 16

WHAT looks to be the final curtain call for an award winning play is set to take place next month.

The Butterfly Catcher, performed by the senior company of the wholly amateur Next Generation Youth Theatre (NGYT), is being performed at The Hat Factory.

The performance is a high school love story, capturing the feelings and thoughts of young people as they collectively voice their concerns about the pressures placed on them in education.

NGYT took their senior company, aged 17-22, to perform the play, written by co-founder David Lloyd, at the Brighton Fringe Festival in May of this year.

Mr Lloyd said: "Taking it to Brighton was all about taking the play and ourselves onto another platform and we did really well."

There, coming up against a number of professional companies, the performance won The Brighton Fringe Award for Outstanding Theatre and was also nominated for The Brighton Fringe Award.

However, as much of the cast are looking to move on in their careers, unless there is a cast change it will be the last performance.

Mr Lloyd added: "It will probably be the last time it's performed as much of the company are now off to university, with some going to drama school as well."

"It will definitely be the last performance with the original cast and probably ever."

"It's a chance for many of them to perform with NGYT one final time, so it's as much a send off for them as it is a play."

"It should be a great occasion, as there's no better send off than a homecoming show."

Tickets cost £8, or £6 for concessions and are available from www.lutonculture.com or the box office on 01582 878100.

Irish troubadour taps into history through 'music of the people'

MUSIC

JOE GILTRAP – FOLK TROUBADOUR

Luton Library Theatre
Saturday, 7.30pm – 9.30pm

PROCEEDINGS will take a more 'folksy' twist this coming Saturday when Irish folk legend Joe Giltrap drops by on his new UK tour.

The Kildare-born singer/songwriter and multi-instrumentalist has had an illustrious four-decade career, with one of his highlights being one of the few people to have recorded with American folk star Tom Paxton.

His tour has been billed as providing a 'fantastic range of Celtic folk songs from traditional to contemporary, all performed in his own distinctive style'.

Luton on Sunday caught up with the musician before his gig this weekend.

For the uninitiated, who is Joe Giltrap?

"A folk singer would be the best description as opposed to...it's a bit difficult to describe."

What is it about folk music that has kept you going in the music business?

"I think the thing about folk music is that if you are attracted to it, it just gets you. It's everyday life.

"If you want to know the history of somewhere do not read the historians' view, listen to the music. It's the music of the people."

What is the idea behind the tour?

"I just like to play. One of my problems is that I got involved in running music venues and I put my energy into that and I was promoting other people's careers.

"When that finished I decided to concentrate on myself and I did some albums and wrote some songs. I love doing concerts and I just love the audience."

What can the audience expect this Saturday?

"They can expect to hear Irish folk songs and some original songs. There's also some English, Scottish and American songs.

"Hopefully it will be something that they can recognise and will entertain them for the night."

Tickets cost £12. To book call 01582 878100.

Popular detective is given a revamp in new production

THEATRE

SHERLOCK HOLMES

Tads Theatre, Toddington
September 17-26, 7.45pm

SHERLOCK Holmes makes another appearance on the stage when amateur drama group Tads Theatre stamps its mark on his life and work.

Directed by Chloe White, who has been with the Toddington group since she was five, this production takes Sherlock away from his 'Hollywood' depiction and goes back to basics.

Chloe said she wanted to make it 'more true to the original' by focusing on how the characters are portrayed in Sir Arthur Conan Doyle's stories. She said: "It's a story that is not in any of the other books but if the audience are familiar with the books then it will feel familiar."

"It is one of the last ever to have been written by Sir Arthur, so maybe you are coming to the end of your journey together and there's a new thing you did not see before in that Sherlock Holmes has a love interest."

Tickets cost £8. To book call 07952 633234.

Laugh-out-loud show based on classic con film set to impress

THEATRE

DIRTY ROTTEN SCOUNDRELS

Milton Keynes Theatre

September 22 to 26, 7.30pm

AN ICONIC comedy film, translated to stage for the West End, is heading to the Milton Keynes Theatre next month.

Dirty Rotten Scoundrels, based on the classic Steve Martin and Michael Caine movie, will transport you to the French Riviera where two seasoned swindlers attempt to hoodwink a beautiful millionaire heiress.

As the two compete for her affections (and her money), they discover there is only room for one of them, but which will it be?

With a recognisable cast, including Noel Sullivan of Hear'Say fame and Carley Stenson from Hollyoaks, the show has received rave reviews in the West End and is packed full of dry wit and laugh-out-loud antics.

But is there a worry that translating such a well-known film to the stage may not be as well received as one might hope?

Noel Sullivan, who plays the larger-than-life upstart hustler, Freddy, said: "I wasn't particularly worried that it was such an iconic film as when you take something to the stage it has a different feel.

"I of course knew the film, but I wasn't about to go in there and do a Steve Martin impersonation, as he is one of a kind. I played to my strengths and clearly the directors liked it.

"Musical theatre is something that always been my focus, and my stint in Hear'Say was not part of my overall plan, so when it came to an end I came back to what I knew.

"I am delighted to be part of this show, and I am sure people will love it."

And Noel is happy to report that the show brings along the trademark laughs.

He said: "The film itself is so close to the knuckle, and we have tried to keep that a central focus for the stage. If people are umming and aahing about whether to get a ticket, I would just say it is two and a half hours of great laughs, good music and you won't look at your watch the entire time.

"Right when it opens it feels like an MGM musical, all political correctness goes out of the window and it is a great laugh."

Dirty Rotten Scoundrels comes to Milton Keynes Theatre from September 22, so book your tickets now at: atgtickets.com/milton-keynes

SCOUNDRELS: Noel Sullivan, who plays Freddy, with Carley Stenson as Christine.

Partying down at Wardown with a helicopter in tow

FAMILY FUN DAY

HELICOPTER IN THE PARK

Wardown Park

September 20, 10am-4pm

WE normally see it when there has been a serious incident but the air ambulance will visit Luton on happier terms next month.

The East Anglian Air Ambulance service is hosting a family fun day as a way of saying 'thank you' to its many supporters throughout the town and surrounding areas.

Last year 500 people accepted the invitation to the event in Wardown Park, which also offers a chance to meet staff from other emergency service operators.

There also will be children's entertainment, food stalls and fairground rides.

Kay Marter, the air ambulance's fundraising manager, said: "This is not about raising money, it's about people coming along and having a fun day out.

"It's a chance for them to see and meet the crews of the helicopter and it's about raising awareness about the work that they do and giving our supporters a chance to meet the people behind the service."

Kay said the 'really good reception' the service had from staff at Wardown Park and those who came last year encouraged them to try and make the fun day a regular thing.

She added: "People are so unaware about what we do so we are hoping to do this as an annual event."

The event is free to attend but food stalls, rides and other activities may require payment.

What Your Agent Has To Say

Major Move's clients endorse best in the business

MAJOR MOVE is a Luton-based independent estate agency operated by local people with more than 30 years experience in the property business; specialising in residential sales, land and development, new homes, lettings and management, mortgage services, home conveyancing and property related Insurance.

Major Move was established in January 2011 by a well known and respected local businessman and we were so successful in the first year that we were able to re-locate to one of the most prominent positions in the area.

It is our priority to provide excellent customer service and communication at all times from introduction to successful conclusion. Continuous recommendation from clients past and present is a measure of our success in achieving this objective.

The enthusiasm of our highly motivated and experienced personnel combined with our innovative and vibrant marketing, repeatedly enables Major Move to achieve the best results for our clients.

Here is a testimonial from a satisfied customer

"We would like to take this opportunity to thank you all at Major Move for helping us find our dream home. Especially Oz, who went above and beyond for our family."

"We have now been living in Arbroath Road for three weeks and couldn't be happier."

"Our experience with other agents was not of the outstanding service that we received from Major Move. We would ONLY recommend Major Move to our friends and family in the future. Thanks so much again."

All-new Jaguar XF leads the way for business cars

Available to order now, the all-new XF will be priced from £32,300 in the UK.

This latest Jaguar XF brings an unrivaled blend of design, luxury, technology and efficiency to lead the business car segment, underpinned by class-leading driving dynamics and refinement and impressive total cost of ownership.

The dynamic, coupé-like design is formed around Jaguar's aluminium-intensive architecture and combines the outstanding proportions, elegant surfaces and perfect lines which define all Jaguar cars, with a longer wheelbase, more interior space and exceptionally low aerodynamic drag yet in a lower and shorter body than the car it replaces.

The cabin is a seamless blend of contemporary luxury materials and finishes, traditional Jaguar craftsmanship and state-of-the-art technology, with features such as a reconfigurable 12.3-inch TFT instrument cluster, laser head-up display and the

SPEED LIMITER: The new XF recognises speed limits and can change speed

InControl Touch Pro premium infotainment system – the all-new XF is the most connected Jaguar ever.

The all-new XF retains its predecessor's core attributes, but uses Jaguar's aluminium-intensive architecture to enable weight savings of up to 190kg – making the 163PS diesel model 80kg lighter than the nearest competitor.

The light, stiff body is also fundamental to the all-new XF's superb vehicle dynamics. Adopting Electric Power Assisted Steering (EPAS) maintains Jaguar's leadership in steering feel but also reduces fuel consumption by up to two per cent and three per cent for diesel and petrol models respectively.

All-Surface Progress Control, developed for low-speed driving in adverse conditions, automatically manages the brakes and the throttle to deliver the best possible traction, enabling the car to pull away smoothly and without drama: the driver only has to steer.

The traffic sign recognition system brings Jaguar's first application of an intelligent speed limiter. Once set, the system monitors speed limit signs, compares them with navigation data and, when a change in speed limit is posted, can regulate vehicle speed by either smoothly accelerating the car up to a higher limit or slowing it down to a lower limit.

BMW 1 Series

Take a look inside...

BMW's 1 Series gets sleeker styling, a range of more economical engines including an all-wheel drive diesel and a refreshed interior. There's still the brilliant M135i to head up the range, but at the other end there's a super-economical three-cylinder 116d that can manage more than 83mpg.

As well as the usual quest to drive down emissions, BMW has also done its best to sneakily add a little more poke under the bonnet where possible. The 1 Series petrol-engined range starts with the 1.5-litre three cylinder 118i with 136PS and the 1.6-litre 120i with 170PS. Then there's the 2.0-litre 218PS 125i, and at the top of the range is the ferocious little M135i, with a three-litre straight six that cranks out 326PS. Pedal this one hard and 62mph flashes by in just 4.9 seconds.

The biggest change has come in the diesel range. The 1.5-litre three-cylinder engine in the improved BMW 116d generates 116PS and 270Nm of torque, an increase of 10Nm compared to its predecessor. A new four-cylinder diesel engine is offered in three states of tune: the 118d generates 150PS, the 120d has 190PS, and the 125d, with its multi-stage turbocharging, cranks out 224PS, enabling this model to reach 62mph from rest in just 6.3 seconds.

One consequence of running a transmission tunnel through what has been a rather compact hatch has been rather compromised accommodation. That hasn't really changed too much. The 1 Series is still a bit more cramped in the back than something like a Golf. Nevertheless, the cabin is a good deal better looking than most rivals, with a revision to the dashboard minor controls.

The exterior styling is a bit neater, especially at the front. For the first time, full LED headlamps with low and main beam have been added to the options list, with Adaptive LED headlamps a further option.

Slowly but surely, BMW are excising each and every flaw in the 1 Series' makeup. While it's still not the most elegant looking hatch on the market, it's no longer conspicuously weird-looking. You could even call the latest car handsome, which would be a first for a 1 Series hatch. Where this generation scores is in building in so much value for the customer.

- From £20,245
- Emissions: 99-188g/km
- 0-62mph 6.8s
- Top speed 138mph
- (combined) 62.8 mpg

The Next Generation Kia Sportage

Kia Motors will reveal its all-new Kia Sportage for the first time globally on 15 September, at the 2015 Frankfurt International Motor Show. Entering its fourth-generation, the all-new Sportage features a bold, progressive design, which exudes power and agility from every angle. The dynamic compact SUV styling creates visual harmony out of the tension between bold, precise feature lines and dramatically-sculptured bodywork. Inside, the all-new Sportage marries simple, modern style with rich material quality for Kia's most refined, highest-quality cabin to date. With the design of the new model led by the brand's European design centre – located in Frankfurt – the all-new Sportage represents the future face of Kia.

New Diesel Engine For Jeep Cherokee

Changes to the popular Cherokee range have just been announced by Jeep, with details of a powerful new engine, offering an augmented range with better fuel economy, greater torque and improved standard content. The current two-litre diesel 140 hp manual versions have been joined by a modern 2.2-litre MultiJet engine, available with 185 hp and 200 hp outputs, and offering a significantly wider spread of torque from low rpm, greater power, improved performance and better fuel economy than the out-going two-litre 170 hp automatic engine. The new 2.2 engine is already Euro 6 compliant. Available only with Jeep's segment-first nine-speed automatic gearbox, and matched to the Active-Drive four-wheel-drive systems, all new Cherokee 2.2 versions are packed with equipment. The new 2.2 MultiJet II engine, which places Jeep Cherokee towards the top of its class for performance, refinement and true efficiency, can now be ordered in the UK. Two power variants are available: 200 hp and 185 hp.

New D-MAX Special Edition Hits The Market

Having announced the new special edition D-Max Fury just last week, Isuzu UK has ensured it storms onto the market with the offer of highly competitive finance. The stunning Fury will be available on contract hire from just £215 + VAT per month when it goes on sale in September. Terms and conditions apply. Conceived specifically for the modern, yet budget-conscious buyer, the Fury offers a unique Magma Red metallic paint finish, bold 17-inch, five-spoke grey alloy wheels, dark grey metallic finish to the front grille – complete with a fiery red Isuzu logo at its centre – and Cosmic Black door and tailgate handles. Gun metal grey heavy-duty side steps complete the exterior look. Buyers will benefit from more than just the purse-strings-friendly finance offer; Isuzu's refined diesel engine returns a highly impressive fuel economy of 38.7 mpg (combined cycle), helping to keep running costs low. Inside, Fury features unique red stitching to key contact points such as the steering wheel and gear knob and dedicated Fury-embazoned carpet mats. Customers also have the option to upgrade the interior seat upholstery to Limited Edition Black and Red Fury leather.

Peugeot 2008: The Perfect Blend

Customer demand for 'a car for all seasons' means Compact Crossover sales continue to rise in the UK. Buy a brand new 65-registration PEUGEOT 2008 from next month and get the perfect mix of practicality and desirability. Furthermore, choose a model with the brand's acclaimed Grip Control technology and it will provide exceptional performance all year round, whatever the weather. More than 30,000 UK customers have bought a PEUGEOT 2008 since its showroom launch two years ago. Expected to be popular with September new car buyers is the 2008 Urban Cross special edition, featuring Grip Control as standard. This system uses electronic driver aids, coupled with special tyres, to offer drivers greater traction. Based on Allure trim level, the Urban Cross includes: rear Parking Aid, unique Urban Cross badging, side decals and electric, heated and folding door mirrors. It's priced from just £16,495 OTR. Standard on every PEUGEOT 2008 is an athletic design, engaging driving experience, high levels of equipment, comfort and outstanding quality in materials and finish. A choice of eight striking interior trims and five different alloy wheels are available.

The New C-Class Coupe

Mercedes-Benz is adding a Coupé to its C-Class family. Athletic and sporty, the vivid, sensual design of the new Coupé cuts a fine figure on the road and embodies modern luxury. At the same time, its interior raises elegance and style to a sporty level. A dynamically configured chassis, with optional air suspension, forms the basis for a high level of suspension comfort, low road roar and tyre vibration, agile handling, and driving pleasure. Lightweight construction to reduce weight, excellent aerodynamics and high-performance yet efficient engines likewise contribute to this. New assistance systems provide safety of the very highest calibre. With its high-class appeal and generous interior, the new C-Class Coupé sets new standards in its segment. It arrives in December 2015.

New Vauxhall Astra Makes World Debut

Vauxhall's all-new Brit-built Astra will premiere at the 2015 International Motor Show (IAA) in Frankfurt on September 15th, 2015 at 09:00 at Stand D09 in Hall 8.0. Built at Vauxhall's Ellesmere Port plant in Cheshire, the new Astra is up to 200kg lighter than the outgoing model and thanks to its clever design it is smaller on the outside and bigger inside. The powertrain portfolio features petrol and diesel units ranging from 100PS to 200PS, including an all-new 1.4-litre (145PS) ECOTEC Direct Injection Turbo, a four-cylinder unit from the same family as the one-litre, three-cylinder engine seen in Corsa, ADAM and VIVA. Equipped with OnStar, the first all-new Vauxhall to feature this technology; this includes high-speed 4G LTE mobile network, emergency response notification and stolen vehicle recovery technology. It is also one of the first vehicles from a mainstream manufacturer to get Apple CarPlay and Android Auto, available through a new version of the IntelliLink infotainment system.

BACK IN IT: Cameron McGeehan celebrates scoring after Stoke City's Jonathan Walters (right) put the visitors ahead at Kenilworth Road

Hatters hold their own in

CAPITAL ONE CUP
LUTON TOWN
STOKE CITY

1
1 (AET 7-8 STOKE WIN)

BY JAMES CUNLIFFE
sport@lsnmedia.co.uk

SCOTT Griffiths may have missed the crucial sudden death penalty but Luton exited the Capital One Cup with heads held high against Premier League Stoke City.

The lottery of spot-kicks remains the most heart-breaking way to lose a cup tie, but after Town were booed off at lowly Yeovil on Saturday, they were roared from the Kenilworth Road stands long after the Potters had booked a third round date with Fulham. From zeroes to heroes, every single one of them.

For once, the Hatters got a taste of last-gasp joy – after two late league capitulations – when Cameron McGeehan forced extra time to cancel out Jonathan Walters' 67th minute moment of top-flight class. For a team that boasted former Barcelona man Bojan Krkic, that was it as far as quality. Luton made the Potters look ordinary.

Most important of all, the Hatters may have just stumbled on a blueprint for their stuttering, winless League Two campaign.

It should be a plan that, for Saturday's visit of Portsmouth at least, does not feature club captain Steve McNulty – an unused substitute here – and ditches the three centre back system that has seen them lose two and draw two.

Given the armband Scott Cuthbert kept City's £10million man Peter Crouch virtually tucked in his back pocket. A gangly, acrobatic miscue and a back post header, which was clawed to safety by keeper Elliot Justham, were the former England striker's only contributions on an evening of slim pickings.

Luke Wilkinson joined him at the centre of a back four where right back Stephen O'Donnell offered width going forward and, despite the cruel twist of fate that saw him hit the bar with his spot-kick, Griffiths – so desperately out of sorts this season – redeemed himself, not only with a solid display but the crucial assist for McGeehan to force extra time.

The former Norwich man, a 60th minute introduction, expertly took on the cut and thrust role of Pelly Ruddock Mpanzu, while solid foundations were laid by lung-buster Jonathan Smith and his calm and collected foil, Olly Lee. Handed his Hatters debut after signing a short term contract last week, the former Birmingham passer, looked instantly at home in the centre of midfield, offering an option other than a big hoof forward – that rather rarefied thing of the simple ball and an ability to retain possession.

It was a highly valuable talent as a touch of the ball was something the hosts were desperately short of in the first 25 minutes. The Potters passed rings around them but rarely threatened in the final third thanks to Cuthbert and co.

When Luton did find some penetration O'Donnell kicked the ball out for a goal-kick with his standing foot just as he was about to pull the trigger. But after diligently chasing shadows in the opening stages, that was the start of more positive things from the Hatters with Pelly Ruddock Mpanzu leading the charge and bursting forward.

In contrast, Stoke were largely wayward with shots from distance and even passes towards the end of the first half. Justham had only to push Jonathan Walters' low shot away before the break and then deny Crouch after the restart.

The keeper had little chance when the deadlock was broken in a solitary moment of Premier League quality as Stephen Ireland dinked a ball over the Luton defence to Walters, who sublimely lofted over the outrushing keeper.

Town tried to respond quickly and substitutes Ryan Hall and McGeehan both forced saves from Shay Given, including a quick-fire double stop.

Then, with one minute of added time played and the tie slipping undeservedly away from the hosts, Hall found Griffiths and the left back flashed a centre across the six-yard box for McGeehan to tap in at the back post. Cue pandemonium.

a Capital thriller

With another 30 minutes secured, Town manager John Still purposefully walked his side over to the raucous Hatters fans and conducted his team talk there, with Luke Wilkinson orchestrating more noise and the old 12th man effect to get them through extra time.

Justham was needed to keep out long range efforts from Walters and Ireland, but he was odds on to do so, while at the other end McGeehan hit the side netting as both side slogged towards spot-kicks.

Given Luton's propensity to shoot themselves in the foot at the death, hearts were in mouths in the final minute when Luton's goalscorer conceded a stupid foul in the edge of the box but, after much jostling in the box, Steve Sidwell headed wide to ensure a spot-kick lottery.

And with that 13 perfect penalties put Griffiths under the spotlight in sudden death. He hit the bar, Geoff Cameron converted and Stoke breathed a sigh of relief.

But for the defender and indeed for Luton this performance could just be the much-needed breath of life for a thus far lacklustre season.

Luton: Justham, O'Donnell, Smith, Cuthbert, Green (McGeehan, 60), Griffiths, Ruddock Mpanzu (Hall, 60), Lee, McQuoid (Benson, 71), O'Brien, Wilkinson

Unused subs: Tyler, McNulty, Guttridge, Mackail-Smith,

Stoke: Given, Bardsley, Pieters, Ireland, Arnautovic (Biram Diouf, 96), Wilson, Walters, Sidwell, Crouch (Joselu, 63), Willschied, Krkic (Cameron, 86)

Unused subs: van Ginkel, Adam, Teixeira, Haugaard

Heads held high after penalty exit

SCOTT Cuthbert insists that Luton Town can emerge from the Capital One Cup defeat to Premier League Stoke City with their 'heads held high'.

The League Two side battled back from a goal down at Kenilworth Road to snatch a last-gasp equaliser through Cameron McGeehan and take the second round tie to extra time and then spot-kicks.

Hatters left back Scott Griffiths hit the bar in sudden death after 13 exemplary penalties were converted and that allowed Geoff Cameron to send Stoke through to a third round clash with Fulham.

Man of the match Cuthbert kept quiet City's £10million former England striker Peter Crouch and said: "I'm delighted that against that calibre of opposition we can come out of it with our heads held high."

"We looked really solid and to get a goal right at the death was nice because we've suffered a few late goals recently. It was nice to get that last minute equaliser to take it into extra time, but it just wasn't to be."

"Penalties is a massive lottery and you've got to give massive credit to the boys who had the bottle to stand up there and take one. There's only got to be one winner."

"When you're in a cup against a Premier League team it's a win-win. The Premier League side are expected to come here and roll us over and we just had to play with confidence and a lot of belief that we could match them and we did that for large parts of the game."

"I'm absolutely delighted with the boys' performance, they were outstanding."

To cap an impressive personal evening, Cuthbert captained the side in the absence of unused substitute Steve McNulty.

Hatters show energy and guile but find heartache

HATTERS

PORTSMOUTH 2

BY JAMES CUNLIFFE
sport@lsnmedia.co.uk

Luton rediscovered their last-gasp mastery of misfortune as Portsmouth's Matt Tubbs delivered a hammer blow to leave them still searching for their first League Two win of the campaign.

The Pompey substitute's 90th minute winner was the third time in seven games this term that Town have conceded in the dying minutes. It is killing them.

"It's devastating. It's not a nice feeling when that goal goes in," striker Josh McQuoid said, adding: "It does hurt us and we know we've disappointed the fans, but we're disappointed as well. Hopefully they keep with us and stick with us and results will come."

Before Tubbs' strike his side's performance had offered only green shoots of recovery and they could have even taken all three points. Cameron McGeehan will rue that second half missed opportunity.

Indeed, until that sickening finale, manager John Still's midweek assertion that his side may get worse before they get better proved a playful little bit of reverse psychology. In the end it was a painful prophecy.

Make no mistake though, this result did not tell the true story. It was not the same Luton side of shockingly collective capitulations past. In fact, they did their damndest to replicate the guile and endeavour that steered them towards a plucky penalty shoot-out Capital One Cup defeat to Premier League Stoke City in midweek.

They weren't firing on all cylinders either, but when your star striker – Craig Mackail-Smith – scores for the second league game running there are usually reasons to feel slightly optimistic.

And until the last knockings, Luton's defence, sans skipper Steve McNulty, had for the second game running gave them a solid platform, even if Luke Wilkinson's clearance smashed into centre back partner Scott Cuthbert's face, falling enticingly for Gareth Evans to smash home an eighth minute opener. There was very little that could have been done about that.

They recovered and Mackail-Smith stroked in from the spot in the 14th minute after McQuoid was tripped by Nigel Atangana.

In a second half of few chances, bar McGeehan's and one cleared of the line from Gary Roberts, there had been little to separate the sides and even less to suggest yet more late heartbreak.

But then Conor Chaplin broke into the box and though Justham saved, there was Tubbs – poacher extraordinaire – to tap into an empty net.
